WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET

The first fall meeting of the Rochester Woman's Club will be held on Wednesday evening, September 7th, at the clubhouse on Marion Road. At this time the year books will be distributed which contains a variety of programs for the coming season that should prove very interesting to club members. Reports on two successful summer events will also be given, the annual bazaar and smorgasbord held in June, and the auction in August.

Starting next week, members of the Rochester club will be canvassing the town for the community birthday calendar which benefits the Raymond C. Hartley Scholarship Fund. This calendar has increased in popularity each year. Besides listing birthdays and anniversaries, club meeting dates, voting and school dates and other community functions are printed on the calendar. Rochester students who received the scholarship money this past June were Logan R. Doane, 3rd and Miss Lorna G. Walker, both graduates of New Bedford High School. Mrs. Timothy O'Brien, chairman of the Scholarship fund, announces that September 27th is the deadline for calendar orders to be in.

HISTORY OF NORTH ROCHESTER CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Continued

The Taunton precinct withdrew from the Larger Parish in 1938 and the council was able to secure a most capable man to carry on the work of the remaining three member churches, the Rev. John E. Hunt. Under his leadership, the rough road the Larger Parish had undergone was suddenly transformed into tranquillity. But within six short months the Rev. Hunt very suddenly died and again the three member churches were floundering without adequate leadership.

In 1940 the services of the Rev. Arthur W. Kennan were secured, and on November 3 and 4, 1940 tenth anniversary services were held of the Rochester-Lakeville Larger Parish.

Morning worship services were held at East Rochester Congregational Church; afternoon vesper services at North Rochester Congregational Church with a fellowship supper served at Grove Chapel, Lakeville.

The menu was listed for the supper which should interest people and the price of the supper. Tickets sold for 40-cents for adults and fifteen-cents for children under 12 years of age. For the big amount of 40-cents a person was served meat loaf, mashed potatoes, creamed onions, cabbage salad, rolls and coffee, and mince and apple pie.

Among people who extended their greetings after the supper were the Rev. Ralph Timberlake, president of Massachusetts Congregational Conference; the Rev. Hilda Ives, president New England Rural Church Commission and also presidents of the Larger Parish since its formation, Mr. Cowen, Mr. Howes, Mr. Whitney

TEACHERS ATTEND WORKERS' INSTITUTE

Five teachers from the Church School of the First Congregational Church of Rochester attended the Church School Workers' Institute at the Congregational Center in Framingham on August 27 and 28. Mrs. George Lawrence and Geraldine Lawrence, kindergarten; Joan LaPointe and Andrea Doane, primary grades and Mrs. Kenneth Winslow, junior high grades, were present at the demonstration classes, discussions and films.

A cake and food sale held by the Church School teachers on the green in front of the Town Hall on August 20th to defray the expenses of the trip was highly successful, and the committee is most grateful to everyone who so generously participated.

BOY SCOUTS HAVE TRIP TO NEW HAMPSHIRE

The boys stayed at the camp of Jethro Ashley at Jefferson, New Hampshire. This is the sixth annual trip for Boy Scouts of Troop 30.

Going on the trip, which was made by bus, were assistant patrol leader of Owl patrol, Raymond Daggett; Robert Balzarini, Thomas and Mr. Beaton, the president at that time.

The Rev. Kennan left in 1943 to join the service as chaplain, and on October 23, 1943 a citation was received about the pastor. It was in this period that Grove Chapel withdrew from the Larger Parish.

Rich in history, the North Rochester Congregational Church observed its 100th anniversary October, 1941 at the present meetinghouse on North Avenue.

The formation of the church was through a controversy which arose between the Rev. Timothy Ruggles, pastor at First Congregational Church, Rochester Center, the mother church, and Noah Sprague.

As stated previously the first meetinghouse was raised November 17, 1748. Originally the building was meant for use during that winter and was poorly and hastily built, but it continued to be used as a place of worship for more than 40 years. The building was torn down and a second building was erected in 1791 upon a "hill near the junction of the roads in North Rochester, where once a tavern and post office stood". The place of worship erected had neither a steeple or a coat of paint. The second building stood and served the people until it was demolished, and a "neat white chapel erected upon or very near its site and is still standing. This third meetinghouse, the present building, was erected in 1841."

Records showed that Indians living nearby attended worship services at North Rochester

MATTAPOISETT POWER SQUADRON FREE PILOTING COURSE

September 15th will be registration night for the Mattapoisett Power Squadron. A free piloting course will be given at the Congregational Church parish hall in Mattapoisett at 7:30 P.M.

Power Squadron members will be on hand to answer questions before the registration begins. The course will be presented in a new and novel way this year, with the use of visual aids and actual class work intensified. This will enable anyone who is interested in boating to learn and use the introductory methods of navigation and piloting.

The evening of September 15th will consist of meeting the members who will lecture and a brief outline of material each lecturer will cover. Methods of teaching will be demonstrated, and the evening will conclude with refreshments.

All are welcome to come and participate in the program. There is no obligation except that you regularly attend classes throughout the year.

This free Piloting Course is only the beginning of several years of seamanship training offered by the Mattapoisett Power Squadron.

Enjoy boating more by knowing more about it. If you have any question call SK 8-2464 of SK 8-2553.

today announced that they have been assured that the Senate Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs will cooperate in securing early action on the Cape Cod National Seashore proposal in the next Congress.

"I, too, will push in the House for early consideration in 1961. In this connection, I was pleased to learn today from Congressman Aspinwall, the chairman of the House committee, that field hearings have been scheduled on the Cape.

"Mr. Aspinall informed me that definite arrangements have been made by the House Committee to hold hearings in the Eastham Town Hall on December 15, 16 and 17.

"This is a big step forward for the Saltonstall-Kennedy-Keith bill. Once the House committee has heard the testimony of the residents and visited the area, they will be better prepared to resolve the differences which were pointed up by the Washington hearings.

"Our two legislative chambers have joined together in a combined effort to assure the people of the Cape and the entire Nation of the best possible seashore legislation in 1961."

Congregational Church. The church was organized in 1753 and its first pastor was the Rev. Thomas West, who was born in Vineyard in 1708. It was under the Rev. West during his pastorate that the Indians were invited to attend public worship. The Indians were requested to pay one-eighth of the cost of the building, which records show was estimated to be 800 pounds.

The second minister was the Rev. David Gurney, who served from 1791 to 1793. The Rev. Calvin Chaddock was ordained October 10, 1795, and at this time a new confession of faith was adopted. The Rev. Chaddock continued serving the church until 1805. During his pastorate he established an academy which was successful until he concluded his duties.

In 1841 when the present church was built, the Rev. Issac Briggs served for 22 years. Prior to that and after 1805 when the Rev. Chaddock concluded his services, the North Rochester Congregational Church went through a period of irregular services and preaching.

CHURCH HISTORY FROM PG. 9
modified by having a square belfry instead of a pointed spire and the belfry contains a bell.

Records show the following ministers served the North Rochester Congregational Church: the Rev. W. J. Carter in 1892; Rev. Edward P. Green in 1893; Rev. V. Hartson, supplied; Rev. Withee in 1898; Rev. Rotch; Rev. John P. Trownbridge, 1901 to 1908; Rev. James H. Childs for four years to 1912, and from that time until 1930 there was irregular preaching. Church services were held during the Summer months with the Rev. Alexander Bourne of Marion conducting morning worship service. The Rev. Bourne's mode of transportation from Marion to Rochester and back was by bicycle. Other pastors preaching during the Summer months were the Rev. Fritz and the Rev. Sayer. After that the Rev. John P. Garfield, then pastor at Central Congregational Church in Middleboro, supplied the pulpit, and for seven years preached Sunday afternoon in the Summer.

KEN VENTURI, BUD PALMER and FRANK GIFFORD
Gifford wears the Fair Isle pullover, $16.95

We have been thinking of changing the name to the Jantzen International Shag Club

For quite some years we have been content simply to bear down on each sweater that we manufacture and try to make it the best in recorded history. So that if they ever put up a "Sportswear Hall of Fame" in Cooperstown or somewhere, there will be Jantzen sweaters all over the gallery.

But in designing great sweaters one at a time we started picture shags, and although no one ever thought it possible to combine the soft hand of shag with rich patterns, we have done it, and we say modestly that we are the envy of the sweater trade.

These are grand sweaters; have you ever seen Venturi, Palmer, and Gifford look better?

We must give it to you straight: There may not be any left if you wait long. Some commercials tell you to "hurry down to your corner drugstore," but no one hurries because druggists don't run out of aspirin. But the fine stores that carry Jantzen will run out. There aren't enough picture shags to go around.
